Congratulations to each of you! Your passion for art, dedication, and exceptional skills truly stood out among the candidates. We believe that your creative abilities and enthusiasm will contribute significantly to the growth and success of our club.

To our talented applicants who were not selected, please know that the decision-making process was challenging due to the incredible talent and passion displayed by all participants. We truly appreciate your interest in joining Renaissance and encourage you to continue nurturing your artistic abilities. Remember, success in the art world is a journey, and this experience will only serve to strengthen your skills and resilience. We value each and every one of you as members of our art community. We encourage everyone, whether selected or not, to remain actively involved in our club's activities.

Once again, congratulations to our new core members and social media handler, and a heartfelt thank you to all the applicants for their enthusiasm and participation. Together, let's make Renaissance a thriving hub of creativity and inspiration!

Best regards,
